

We do not like the repeated indication of adjusting asset purchase both “lower and higher” in today’s meeting. We are selling all of our reflation assets based on this concern and are all in cash as of now

We may have this wrong but the downside of a true slowing in asset purchase is extreme

Regards

Andy